Foreword

WE, the members of the 1942 Bexleo staff, in order to provide a lasting memory of our class, inspire the oncoming students to emulate this tradition, and secure through the language of pictures all our activities, do inscribe and publish this yearbook of Bexley High School.

Class Song

In These Halls of Bexley High

Within these halls of Bexley
We will leave old friends behind;
Though our future is uncertain
It will be success we'll find.

As we leave behind these memories,
Our hearts will ne'er deny
We've shared our joys and sorrows
In these halls of Bexley High.

Lyrics—Helen Hoyer
Jean Metzger

Music—Marjorie Hausman

Album of The Class of '42

IT was a happy day for me when, seated at the typewriter that evening June 11, 1962, in my room at the Imperial Hotel, Tokyo, I received the following word from my managing editor:

"Consider your assignment in Japan completed. Return next plane to New York to cover Presidential election. Defeat of New Deal appears certain."

Well, that would be an assignment worth while! Fifteen years of service as foreign correspondent for the New York Times had just about given me my fill. I was surfeited with the endless intrigue of foreign diplomacy which constitutes the daily work of a foreign correspondent. Besides, I didn't like Japan even though it was now controlled by the United States.

So I boarded the Strato Clipper and was in New York within the customary ten hours.

With my mind occupied with my coming assignment, I had just crawled out of the plane when I looked into the face of a camera pointed at me by a big six footer. "Give us a smile, Chuck Salt," commanded the operator in a voice vaguely familiar. In an instant my mind raced back twenty years—"Why, Chuck Rogers, you old camera hound. Still at it, aren't you? How come you're here?"

"I'm here to complete my album of the good old class of '42, and you're the last victim to be shot."

"You mean that you have photographed every member of the gang?" I asked.

"Yes," he answered. "And you're on your way up to my studio to give the rogues' gallery the once over and chew the fat about the good old times. I'm in the New York Academy of Photographic Art. President of the outfit," he added modestly.

Off we started with Chuck firing questions like a machine gun. "What's your racket?" he asked.

"Back to cover good old U. S. A. and our coming Presidential election," I replied.

"You know, of course, that Dick Dorst is putting up a grand campaign and really stands a good chance to get elected to the Presidency," he explained.

"Sure," I replied, "I got all that by short wave."

"And did you know that he has his cabinet already selected?" he asked.

"No, I didn't know that. Who's who?" I asked.

"Well," he answered, "Bob Otstot is his running mate for Vice-President and his cabinet lines up as follows: John Pierce, Attorney-General; Bob Olpp, Postmaster-General; Jay Mulbarger, Secretary of State; Bob Miller, Secretary of Agriculture; Howard Mitchell, Secretary of Interior; Peretz Jacobson, Secretary of Treasury; Jim Henley, Secretary of War; Sid Tyroler, Secretary of Commerce; Ray Heston, Secretary of Navy; Mary Shannon, Secretary of Labor."

"I suppose he has a Brain Trust, too?" I asked.

"Sure," he answered, "and you know every one of them. Chuck Beck, David Bolon, Jack Wiseman, and J. Ray Ferbrache.

"And Dick has a swell bunch of Brain Trusterettes on top, too. You know Dick. There's Marjorie Reinert, Carroll Porter, Pat Mitchell, Lois Frumkin, and Alene Pryor."

"H'm. Looks like a streamline government a la Bexley Hi Torch," I commented.

"And that's not all," Chuck went on. "Did you know that Bob Kronenbitter and Jack Kuhn are running for Senators from Ohio and New York respectively?"

By that time we had reached the studio and Chuck led me into a gorgeous hall, walls covered with photographic studies of world-wide celebrities. "And here's my masterpiece," he said proudly as he brought forth a large bulging album. "Snaps of every member of good old Bexley '42," he explained.

FIRST ROW: Lou Sheaf, Director John J. Hessler, August Lombardo, Billie Eisele.

Band

THE Bexley High School Band forms an integral part of our school life and therefore, in the eyes of the 1942 Bexleo staff, deserves the same recognition extended to any other branch of school activity. For this reason we are giving to this organization the place in our annual it so fully deserves.

The band has for years been an indispensable part of our rooting section at football games. Who could imagine a game without the band to play "Onward Bexley" and "Alma Mater Bexley," and to provide a spectacle of marching and formation work at the half?

An equally fine service of our band is its annual concert. This year's concert took place April 29, playing to a large and enthusiastic audience.

FIRST ROW: Alene Pryor, Alice Schacht, Lois Frumkin, Marjorie Reinert, Patricia Mitchell, Sue Schumacher, Marguerite Barnes, Elizabeth Coffman, Mary Corbett.

National Honor Society

BEXLEY HIGH SCHOOL may bestow many honors upon deserving students, but one of the highest is membership in the National Honor Society. The four requisites on which membership in this club is based are scholarship, service, leadership, and character. The object of the organization is "to create enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in the pupils of Bexley High School." The members are selected from the upper third of the class in scholarship, and only fifteen per cent of the senior class may be admitted each year. This year eighteen seniors, excelling in the four basic points of qualification, have been selected for admission to the organization.

SECOND ROW: Dick Dorst, Dick Greenberg.

Quill and Scroll

ONE of the highest honors conferred on Bexley students is admittance to Quill and Scroll, International Honorary Society for High School Journalists. To be eligible for this honor, students must have made an outstanding contribution to journalism in business, art, or literary work. The prospective members are required to have served two years on the Torch staff, or one year on the Torch staff and Bexleo staff; and all must display journalistic ability by their writing.

All students fulfilling these requirements are recommended by Miss Geist and Mr. Howell, Torch and Bexleo advisers. A sample of each student's writing which has appeared in the Torch is then sent to the executive secretary of the national chapter for approval.

A Quill and Scroll chapter was chartered in Bexley High School two years ago. Initiation for the members of this year's class will be held on April 30 with last year's members officiating.

The Quill and Scroll members of 1942 sincerely hope that the future journalists of Bexley will strive to uphold the established high ideals.

Hi-Y Club

THE Hi-Y Club enjoyed a very good season this year with a membership of 50 boys. President Bob Otstot and Vice President Frank Loehnert arranged many interesting programs throughout the year.

During the past year the Hi-Y Club together with the Girl Reserves sponsored two chapel programs. Other service projects performed by the Club were a barn dance and a picnic.

The Club boasted a fine basketball team by bringing home the trophy for the second consecutive year. The boys also had a good bowling and baseball team.

Girl Reserves

THE Girl Reserves, junior members of the Y.W.C.A., have engaged in numerous enjoyable and stimulating activities this year, all of which have contributed to the promotion of good fellowship and to the fulfillment of the Girl Reserve purpose: "To Find and Give the Best."

A Mexican Fiesta opened the year in grand style, introducing the Girl Reserves to the school's new students and bringing the membership to 108. In addition to the many varied and interesting meetings, the recognition tea, the Valentine Carnival, the joint meeting with the Hi-Y, the Easter morning worship service, and the senior farewell banquet all contributed to make the club year 1941-1942 one of the best in Girl Reserve history.

An additional honor came to the Girl Reserves as their president, Marjorie Reinert, was elected president of the city-wide Girl Reserve organization.

Girls' Athletic Club

IN THESE days when physical fitness is of such importance to our country, the Girls' Athletic Club takes on new importance. Organized for the purpose of stimulating interest in athletics among the girls of the high school, the Girls' Athletic Club accomplishes this aim by awarding a Bexley "B" after a total of 500 points is attained. These points are earned by participation in certain specified sports.

While the organization did not go in for Intramural sports this year, ample activity was provided by such events as a skating party, swimming party, and bicycle hike.

The club had one guest speaker, Bud Tracy, who spoke to the girls on the fundamentals of good badminton.

Dramatics Club

WITH the largest membership in its five-year history, the Dramatics Club has had the active participation of many juniors and seniors during the past year. Chief among its activities has been the presentation of many plays which were acted and produced by members. Several of these were student written. The main part of the work of the club has been carried on through five committees which were organized early in the year and were listed under the following classifications: social, program, plays, make-up, and play writing.

Each year the Dramatics Club uses the extra money in its treasury to buy a gift for the club which will be useful and beneficial to the dramatics classes. This year the club donated the new dressing table and bench and the costume rack.

Le Cercle Français

LES clubs constituent une partie essentielle de notre vie scolaire. Le Cercle Français a été une source d'instruction et de divertissement pour les élèves enthousiastes. Le français n'est pas une langue seulement académique—c'est une langue vivante dont les racines et les fleurs couvrent le monde entier. C'est ici qu'on trouve la fonction du cercle français, qui a pour but d'harmoniser la vie scolaire avec la vie de tous les jours.

Dans les séances on présente des pièces de théâtre, des chansons françaises, des jeux, et des films. De temps en temps nous sommes assez heureux d'avoir comme hôte des Français ou des Françaises qui nous parlent au sujet soit des coutumes soit de la littérature ou de la civilization de la France. C'est bien vrai que les membres du club prennent plaisir à assister au réunion de tous les mois.

These are the officers for the various Spanish Clubs, to which Miss Selma Hamann is adviser.

El Círculo de Español

CíRCULOS han formado una parte integra de nuestra vida de la escuela. El círculo de español ha entretenido y instruido con enthusiástica aclamacíon de los estudiantes. El español no es la lengua de la sala de enseñanza—es una lengua animada y necesita solamente su influencia de mucho alcance explicado a los discípulos. Aquí está donde entra el círculo, porque su propósito es para efectuar alguna cosa una más grande cognación entre el estudiante y la lengua. Los socios participan en funcionamientos, y cooperan en trazar las programas. Los oradores de visita que son bien denunciados en algun aspecto del sujeto, sean los hábitos, o la arquitectura, o la literatura en los paises que hablan español, hablan por medio de intrigas a los socios lines y juegos adicionan el color a una asamblea. Sí, los socios del círculo español miran adelante a la asamblea de cada mes.

Sodalitas Latina

SODALITATES partem necessariam vitae scholae nostrae finxerunt. Sodalitas Latina, omnibus discipulis probantibus, delectavit et erudivit. Latina non est lingua mortua, sed viva, et modo auctoritatem amplificantem discipulis exponere oportet. Ibi sodalitas init, nam constituta est ut propinquitas inter discipulum et linguam efficeretur. Sodales in ludis sunt participes et in libelis faciendis una agunt. Oratores qui mores, architecturam aut litteris Italiae bene intellegunt sodalibus magno cum studio loquuntur. Picturae moventes et ludi sodalitati delectionem addunt. Ita, sodales Latinae sodalitatis quoque mense conventum expectant.

Head Lion Tamer

THE record of the 1941-42 Bexley teams is almost unbelievably good after last year's all-victorious record. We have won the football championship, as well as the reserve and varsity basketball championships. The baseball and tennis championships are practically "in the bag", but the track team will probably relinquish its title either to Westerville or Upper Arlington. Only one game of basketball and two track meets have been lost in league competition in the last two years.

The football team was a wonderful machine and lost only to Washington C. H. in the final game 13-7. It will be considered as one of the best ever to represent Bexley on the gridiron.

The basketball team turned out to be one of those superior units which have represented Bexley in the last few years. They lost only one league game, to Grandview; and only one outside the league, to Marion Harding, finishing with twelve won and two lost. Their most notable achievement was beating Arlington twice during the season 34-33 and then beating them 42-28 in the District tournament.

The baseball team seems to be better than during the last few years and to date is undefeated after seven straight wins. It is undefeated in the league, including a no-hit game with Academy. It is sure to win the title and will probably make a great showing in the Central District tournament.

The track team this year is below average for Bexley teams, due to graduation of last year's stars and inexperience of the new boys. Most of the team are freshmen and sophomores. To date they have not won a meet and the chances in the Central Buckeye are slim. They are doped to take third place. The bright spots for this year are the breaking of the Bexley field record and the C. B. L. record in the discus throw by Jay Mulbarger.

The tennis team is undefeated for the last three years with thirty-eight straight victories. It is champion of the league and has a good chance to take the Central District honors.

The golf team is very mediocre again and is winning only about one-half of its matches.

In summary we can say that 1941-42 is one of the best athletic years in the history of the school, with the winning of all championships except track and with the loss of only one contest in all other sports in the league. Seniors should be proud of this record and underclassmen should tremble for fear they cannot keep up the good work in 1943 and 1944.

—CARLTON H. SMITH.

Cheerleaders

MUCH originality in devising new cheers was displayed by Bexley's cheerleading squad this year. In addition to a unique pyramid formation, six other new cheers were completed which included a V for victory cheer, the spelling of "yea", the allah Bexley, the huddle, a new locomotive, and tumbling.

With the selection of Betsy Townsend, Gerry Champ, and Patty Thompson in September, the total number of cheerleaders was raised to ten. Pat Tully headed the group to which the following returned after previous duty on the squad: Sue Schumacher, Betty Elsass, Jean Metzger, Betty Cramer, Ned Jones, and Bob Kronenbitter.

Captains

Football—Captain Bob "Porky" Wright, mighty center of Bexley's eleven and first Bexley High gridder to make All-State.

Basketball—Captain Jim "Buck" Henley, elusive forward who made All-C. B. L. team.

Track—Captain Dick "Kay" Kaiser, sprinter on Lion cinder team and all-around athlete.

Baseball—Captain Dick "Hank" Greenberg, center fielder and basketball star.

Football

THEY were good because they made themselves good," said head Lion-tamer Carlton H. Smith about the 1941 football squad and he should know. The reason they never "let down" in a game, any game, was because of their indomitable team spirit: the spirit which Captain "Porky" Wright and "Soph" and the Mulbargers sparked into the team. That team came out every day, rain or shine and practiced until they were the best. No let down, no "days off," all hard work. Did it bring results? Well, look for yourself.

Bexley's first victory was over Worthington, the score 25-0. John Sophos and Sid Tyroler accounted for a pair of touchdowns apiece.

The next game with Mt. Vernon turned out to be a real battle with Bexley nosing out the Yellow Jackets by the score of 7-6. Tom Mulbarger made the winning conversion after Sophos scored the touchdown.

Delaware fell the next victim to the Lions to the tune of 21-0. Next year's captain, Ernie Plank, scored a touchdown and a safety on two blocked punts from his position at tackle. Mulbarger and Spencer made the other two touchdowns.

The previously unbeaten Arlington Bears fell 12-0 to Bexley's powerful grid machine. Left end Howard Mitchell crossed the touchdown stripe twice after catching passes hurled by George Spencer.

John Sophos and George Spencer piled up the touchdowns when the Lions defeated Columbus Academy 21-7.

The Westerville game was rumored to be a tough one but Bexley won with comparative ease, with a score of 20-0. Jay Mulbarger, Sophos, and Spencer were responsible for the touchdowns.

Bexley cinched the C. B. L. football title when they beat Grandview 21-0, in a mighty display of offense. Spencer and the ever present "Soph" carried the ball across to score.

But the end had to come, and the Lions experienced their first defeat in two seasons when Washington C. H., topped them 13-7.

Captain Bob Wright proved to be the man of the year when he made the mythical All-Ohio football team. He also made the Citizen All-City team as did John Sophos and Howard Mitchell, while Jay Mulbarger, George Spencer, Dick Kaiser, George Krieger, Ernie Plank and Bob Miller received honorable mention.

Basketball

"THEY won their games with sheer enthusiasm," was what Coach Carlton H. Smith said about this year's repeating C. B. L. basketball champs. The team looked "just average" at the beginning of the season but they just kept winning until there wasn't much doubt about their superiority. The cagers won nine out of ten C. B. L. games, dropping only one to a "red hot" Grandview team. And what rooter can forget those two Arlington games with their last second outcomes and the eternal ratio 34-33?

As for individual scoring honors, there's Dick Greenberg who led the list with a total of 137 points. Ernie Plank, next year's basketball (and football) captain, was always out there dropping 'em in as was Captain "Buck" Henley. On the defense, the whole team was noteworthy. Football Captain "Porky" Wright was well known for his "zippy" passes and Jim Legg for his long shots. Good performances were always turned by substitutes George Spencer, Dick Dorst, Howard Mitchell and Frank Loehnert.

FIRST ROW: Leonard Shiff, Tom Reeb, Sanford Stern, Tom Willard, Scott Knisley.
NOT IN PICTURE: Charles Schreiner, Glenn Barrett.

Reserves

THE Bexley High basketball reserve team managed a very successful season, suffering only one defeat at the hands of Marion Harding.

FIRST ROW: Charles Salt, Jim Shutt, Sanford Stern, Arthur Fothergill.

Baseball

THE Lions have enjoyed an unusually fine season on the diamond, to date, defeating all league opponents with apparent ease. George Spencer and Herb Pollock have alternated on the mound position, with Leo Gerhold on the receiving end of their efforts. Lanky Bill McDermott has kept his toe on the initial sack, hauling down the "hot" ones, and Jim Legg has been responsible for shortstop. Ernie Plank has held down third, while "Sam" Barrett covered second to complete the infield. In the outfield from right to left are Jack Crowe, Captain Dick Greenberg, and Jim Henley respectively.

To date of this writing, the mighty nine has defeated the following teams with the respective scores:

Bexley	4	U. Arlington 2
Bexley	7	Grandview 3
Bexley	10	Delaware 3
Bexley	6	St. Charles 2
Bexley	16	Academy 2
Bexley	6	U. Arlington 1
Bexley	12	Grandview 1

THIRD ROW: Ted Magnuson, Bill Jones, Jim Hensel, Pete Sodt, Eugene Polster, Coach Carlton H. Smith, Stanley Rossbach, Beman Young, Gordon Bolon, Joe Wright.

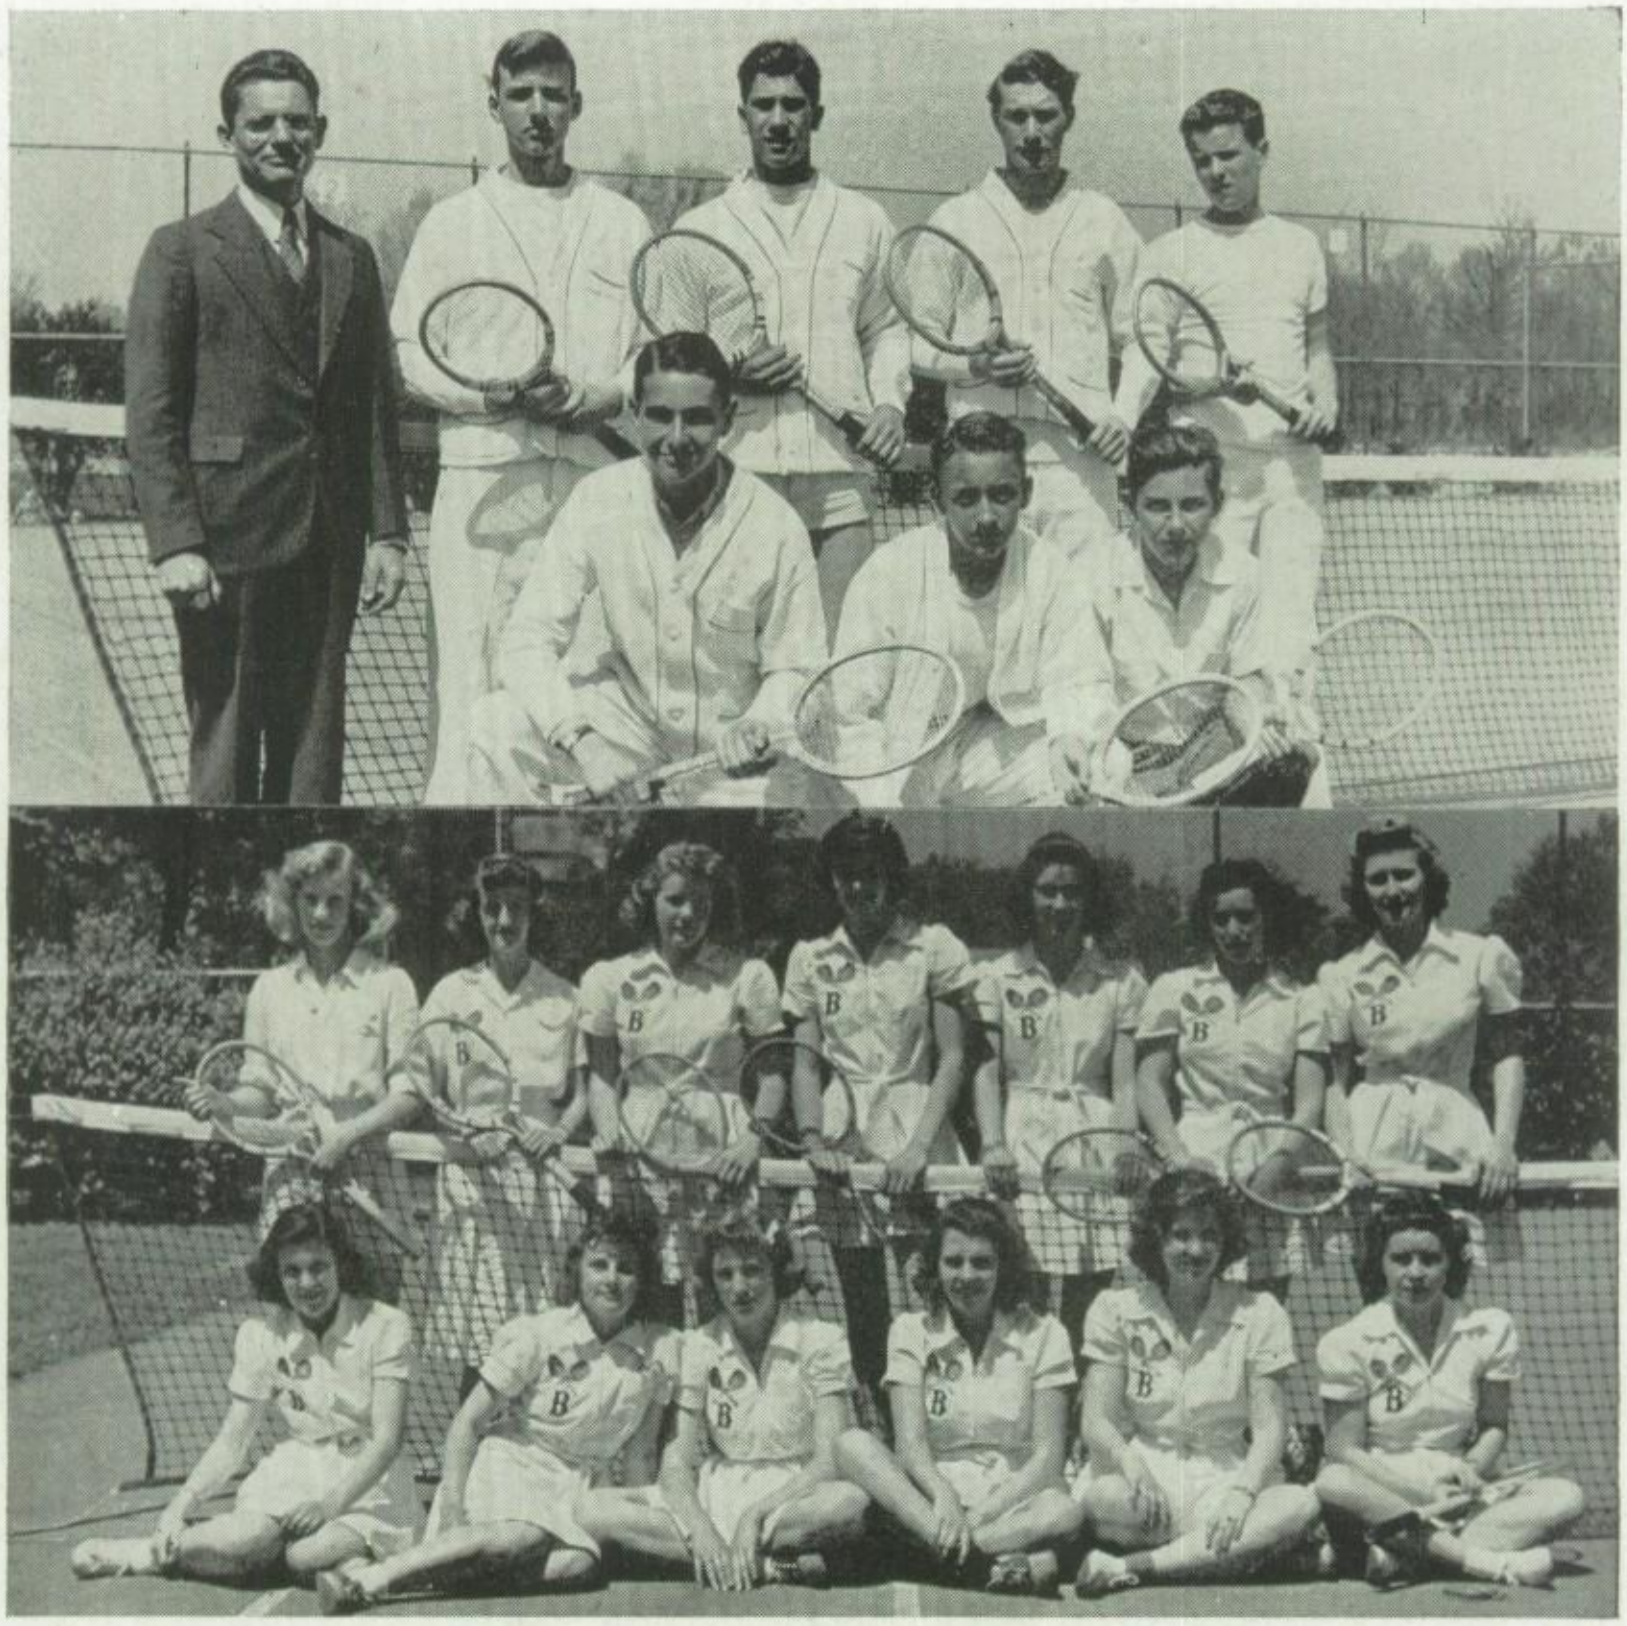
Track

DESPITE weaknesses in some events, this year's track team made a fair showing. First defeat came at the hands of a superior South squad with successive downings by Arlington, University, South, and Westerville in pre-League meets. Victims of the Lion cinder team were Delaware and Rosary. In the C. B. L. meet Arlington and Westerville proved far superior to the Bexley squad, whose only trailer was Delaware.

Thompson, Kaiser, Eickholt, and Rogers alternated in the sprinting division as well as composing the 880-yard relay team. In the distances were underclassmen Hensel, Sodt, and Pilcher who show lots of promise for the future. George Ward snatched firsts right and left in the 400-yard run and broad jump, seconded by Jack Black who also pole vaulted.

Hurdle men were Lewis and Jones, who ran both high and lows, and Thompson, who ran only the lows. In the field, the Mulbargers hurled the discus, Jay breaking the C. B. L. record twice in the same season. John Alfred performed the high jump, and the Mulbargers and Rogers put the shot.



Boys' Tennis Team

PRE-SEASON opinion had it that only a mediocre season was ahead for this year's tennis team. To date, the net men have practically walked away with all of their matches. Despite the loss of two top place men, Herb Pollack and Dick Greenberg, they have been led by Captain and singles star Dick Dorst to eleven straight victories, topping Academy, Arlington, Grandview and Delaware twice and whipping Westerville, North and University besides.

Girls' Tennis Team

AGGREGATING a grand total of four wins, no losses, and one tie, the girls' tennis team has chalked up a fine record for itself so far this season. First, University was defeated 7-1; then came the 4-4 tie with C. S. G.; but Grandview was beaten by a 6-2 margin; and Arlington bowed twice to the Lionlasses with scores of 6-2 and 7-1.

Six seniors, one junior, and four freshmen comprised the team this year; and positions were as follows: singles, first, Betty Elsass; second, Clarine Collins; third, Sue Schumacher; fourth, Phyl Smith; fifth, Alene Pryor; doubles, first, Helen Hoyer and Gerry Champ; second, Mary Shannon and Joe Davies; third, Jo Crawford and Connie Crumley. Barbara Hutchinson acted as the alternate.

Swimming

EVEN if the members of the swimming team didn't pile up enough points to win either of their two meets, at least they received a good deal of experience for next year.

The tank men, all underclassmen, fell victims to the teams of both University and Aquinas in the only two meets of the season.

Golf

THE golf team this year made a fair showing, considering the tough competition they have to contend with in the City League. They defeated East and Aquinas but fell before the superior teams of Grandview, West and Central.

The Bexleo

HERE between the covers of this annual, students of Bexley High School, is your record of the school year now drawing to a close. We, the staff, were entrusted with a responsibility, that of putting into concrete form the many factors, tangible and intangible, that go to make up a school year.

If we have succeeded in painting for you a picture warm and alive, then our job is well done.

The Bexley High Torch

AGAIN winning the high distinction which comes as a result of taking first place in the contest sponsored by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, the Torch added another laurel to its wreath and brought the total of such awards to eight. It was also rated as first class or excellent by the National Scholastic Press Association.

Under the leadership of Dick Dorst, the Torch adopted and executed a policy of streamlining successfully; and through the efforts of the advertising staff and a concession at one of the football games, it has been able to end the year with a small surplus.

The literary staff for Volume XVII of the Torch included Dick Dorst as Executive Editor with the following subordinates: Literary Editor, Alene Pryor; Assistant Literary Editors, Elizabeth Coffman, Mary Corbett, and Alice Schacht; Composition Editors, Charles Rogers and Charles Salt; Sports Editor, Dick Greenberg; Assistant Sports Editor, Bill Bernlohr; and News Editor, Barbara Babbitt. Marjorie Reinert acted in the capacity of Exchange Editor, while Judy Spotts handled the art work and Charles Rogers was in charge of photography. Heading the business staff were Bob Otstot and Dave Bolon as business and advertising managers, respectively.

Bexleo Business Staff

UNDER the supervision of Ralph M. Howell, now head of both the literary and business staffs of the Bexleo, this year's business staff not only has cleared the accumulated debt of several years but is ending the year with a clean slate.

By virtue of the increased price of the book and a new installment system for purchasing it, the income from subscriptions rose from last year's level of $373 to $630.

The advertising staff, headed by John Pierce, has done a remarkable piece of work in view of unsettled business conditions. Betty Cramer, Helen Dunn, and Mary Shannon have been responsible for the professional directory, while Barbara Babbitt, Helen Hoyer, and Barbara Jones have handled the patron list. The remaining members of the business staff brought in the ads.

Promotion and circulation were handled by Marilyn Cole and Charles Crumley, respectively.

Album of The Class of '42

Starts on Page 29

Tenderly he opened the treasured book and there on page one looking out at me was Susan Schumacher, known to the world as Babs Ver de Vere, motion picture star extraordinary. On the same page appeared Joan Thoman, Broadway actress; Mary Louise Herrel and Betty Leiendecker, ballet dancers; Helen Hoyer and Marilyn Jaynes, Metropolitan Opera stars; Jean Metzger, noted violinist; and the well-known pianist, Elaine Friedberg.

Page 2 in the Album gave us excellent studies of Judy Spotts, Betty Joy Howard, and Mary Haney, noted artists; and Evelyn Thompson and Marilyn Soliday, leaders in their field of Commercial Art.

One after another they paraded before me, candid shots of my old friends, each photograph bearing a caption of the field in which he or she has gained fame. We leafed through the book: Walter Abramson, scientist; Bob Alderman, Floyd Benedict and Carl Deardurff, playboys; Pat Tully and Nancy Amos, physical education teachers; Barbara Babbitt, journalist; Clarine Collins, a professional tennis player with Jane Baldwin as her manager; Betty Cramer, Marguerite Barnes, and Barbara Meyer, kindergarten teachers; Glen Barnett, Jim Shutt, and Robert Givens, air lines pilots, with Dorothy Jones as air hostess; Martha Pfanz and Mary Pfanz, secretaries—one works one day and the other the next and their boss, Bob Wright, never knows the difference; the same with Doris and Lois Mickey, who have James Friddle as their boss.

Toward the middle of the album we met our old friends, Neva Cook, Mary Isabel, and Marjorie Hausman, models for distinguished New York department stores; John Sophos, coach of the Columbus Bullies, and Louis Wilch, manager of the same team, with Stan Maxwell as the referee. Dick "Hank" Greenberg has just been sold to the New York Yankees; Bob Whitehead and Jerry Hackman now own a dude ranch; Leo Gerhold owns a skating rink, and Earl Fromm runs a theater; Bob McArtor has finally bought a car that will stand up, a "Jeep," and there's Lorna Blumenschein and Mary Coakley riding with him. Ethel Clinch, Jean Hamrick, and Virginia DeVoe own a style shop. Julia Brand is an ambulance driver, with Frances Conner, Connie Hutchins, and Helene Buck as her assistants.

And now we come to a few of the married couples. There's Charles Crumley and Betty Dutro; Tom Mulbarger and Phil Carson. Helen Dunn is now Mrs. Robert Herbst, and Betty Elsass is Mrs. John Loehnert; John Beeson and Alma Held are Mr. and Mrs.; Joan Schorr is married to Dick Kaiser, who runs a clothing store together with Bill Sutton.

A little farther on are Bud Leupold, Jim Dawson, and Bill Loos, clowns in the Ringling Brothers Circus; Jim Homan, the strong man and Mary Corbett, the fortune teller in the same show. As we turned the page we saw Elizabeth Coffman, editor of the Reader's Digest, her helpers being Alice Schacht, Literary Editor; Barbara Jones and Janet Helpbringer, assistant literary editors; Marilyn Cole, general manager; and Harriet Stoker, short story writer. Then there's Jim Conley and Henry Burch, both competing for the top notch band in the land. Don Brunzell, is a hard-boiled top sergeant in the U. S. army; Keith Turpie runs a gun factory; Jack Black and Charles Eicholt are "pro" basketball players; Louise Mark and Gloria Maybrook operate a water-front restaurant.

Fondly we turned the last pages of the album which showed Peggy Ridgely, Mary Louise Nagle, and Mary Schwartz working in a defense plant making buttons for the soldiers' coats. Jean Shadrach and Mary Hullinger each own a farm, but all they can raise is the roof. Doris Stone and Kaylette Smith own a funeral home. They have a unique system: one spies a man crossing the street and runs over him with her car while the other follows in an ambulance. Finally, we see those three ardent women haters Ed Feustal, Walter Hempstead, and Dan Lorenz who have pulled a Li'l Abner trick and become hermits. On Sadie Hawkins day we see Julianne Lindsey, Marilyn Purcell, Barbara Thompson, Rosemond Meriwether, and Gloria Freeman chasing these three, but they always seem to get away.

Reluctantly we closed the album and left the studio, fondly wishing that we might once again inhabit those hallowed halls of good old Bexley High School.

Identification of Faculty Cartoons

(PAGES 54 AND 55)

1. Our search for "universal truth"
   Is consummated in our Ruth.

2. Expert in Latin phrases, dramas,
   Our toast to Amy is amamus.

3. His subtle humor bathes the room,
   But Oh, that cursed "book of doom."

4. To Rita, charity is native—
   As standard as the o in dative.

5. Vivacious, vigorous, and vital,
   "Miss Vibrant," Lucille's proper title.

6. Amidst the clatter and the din,
   Mary—neat as the proverbial pin.

7. Albert deals his daily tests,
   And my poor grades grow less and less.

8. "All things to all men" is Duffey,
   As widely known as old
   McGuffey.

9. Strike up the band commands our Sousa,
   He blew too hard and blew a fusa.

10. Poems a la Lowell her realm(a),
    Perfect vehicle for Selma.

11. Her eyes speak Latin romance—
    Trola,
    Voice sweet as Hoffman's
    Barcaroll(a).

12. Dramatic in her every pose
    From classic head to dainty toes.

13. Coach of coaches, wide renown,
    Each year adds another crown.

14. Raphael said it very well,
    "I owe my art to Rosabelle."

15. And Ross a mighty man is he
    In every phase of chemistry.

16. "So tough, but oh so gentle," he
    Who knows his every 'ology.

17. And Johnnie's prayer is "Oh,
    Lord, hide us
    From dread disease of Sophomoritus."

18. Symbolic his trusty T square.
    "Hew to the line and always B square."

19. Wisdom, disposition, poise—
    We wish that she were Dean of Boys.

20. What it takes this teacher hath,
    Bexley's Euclid, king of math.

21. On shakespeare's poetry she dotes;
    The stars stand still when Lucile quotes.

22. With all his mathematical mind,
    To sportsmanship he is not blind.

23. "Let Ralph do it"—It's as good as done;
    He always makes a hole in one.

24. Our much beloved baseball boss,
    The army's gain, but Bexley's loss.
